AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL BOTANIC GARDENS EXCURSION

Monday 23rd August 2021 (Week 7)

Dear Families,

The students in 1/2 will be going on an excursion to the Australian National Botanic Gardens on Monday 23 August 2021. To link with our big question “What does a map tell us?”, this excursion will give students an opportunity to explore the different ecosystems around Australia as well as to look at maps and the topography of the Botanical Gardens.

“Staff accompanying students on excursion will take all reasonable care while the students are in their charge to protect them from injury and to control and supervise their behaviour and activities. Parents should be aware that staff members are not responsible for injuries or damage to property, which may occur on an excursion where, in all circumstances, staff have not been negligent. Parents should warn children of the risk to themselves, to others and to property, of impulsive, wilful or disobedient behaviour.”

“It is customary for the school to request a financial contribution towards meeting the cost of your child’s participation in this excursion. These contributions are voluntary. Individual records of contributions are confidential. The school has made every effort to keep the costs for this activity at a reasonable level. Please see Jacqui if you require financial assistance. “

Regards,
